IN RE:  OFFICE OF CONSUMER ADVOCATE,  Complainant,  vs.  SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY, L.P.,  Respondent.	DOCKET NO. FCU-03-19
---	----------------------

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR DISMISSAL

(Issued April 8, 2004)

On March 15, 2004, the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) filed a request for leave to withdraw the petition it filed in this docket upon the condition that Sprint Communications Company, L.P. (Sprint) reduce Ms. Mehmedovic's account to zero as agreed by Sprint. On March 18, 2004, the undersigned administrative law judge issued an order granting the request so long as Sprint recalled the debt from the collection agency, reduced Ms. Mehmedovic's account to zero, notified Ms. Mehmedovic of its action, and filed proof with the Utilities Board. On March 29, 2004, Sprint filed proof that it complied with the order and, in addition, had its collection agency authorize the major credit bureaus to delete any negative credit reporting history associated with the debt.

Sprint requested that the matter be dismissed and closed with prejudice. On April 6, 2004, the Consumer Advocate filed a statement that it did not resist Sprint's request. The request should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The request filed by Sprint on March 29, 2004, is hereby granted and Docket No. FCU-03-19 is dismissed and closed with prejudice.
